SPECIAL TERMS AND NOTES

An "Agent Seat Month" shall be deemed utilized for each Agent that is Provisioned to access and use the applicable Service at any time during a monthly period commencing as of the Service Start Date. The Subscription Charges per Agent Seat Month for a Service shall be due and payable for each Agent Seat Month, whether or not each Agent Provisioned to access and use such Service utilizes another Service.

Subscriber may allocate the Agent Seat Months throughout the Subscription Term commencing as of the Service Start Date. Subscriber is responsible for all Subscription Charges for the Agent Seat Months indicated in this Service Order Form whether or not utilized, and the Agent Seat Months not utilized in the Subscription Term may not be carried over into any subsequent Subscription Term. The Agent Seat Months utilized shall be measured on a monthly basis. In any monthly period (commencing as of the Service Start Date) the Agent Seat Months utilized shall be the maximum number of Agents Provisioned to access and use the Service by Subscriber during such monthly period. An Agent will be deemed "Provisioned" for purposes of this paragraph when Subscriber assigns the respective individual the status of an "Owner", "Agent", "Staff", "Administrator", "Advisor", "Team Leader" or similar in Subscriber's Account. For clarity, a "Suspended" Agent shall be included in this total. An Agent must be fully de-provisioned to End-User status in order to not be included in any month's total.

During the Subscription Term of this Order Form, Subscriber shall have the right to purchase additional Agent Seat Months ("Expansion Agent Seat Months") at the same Subscription Charges as indicated in this Service Order Form by executing additional Order Form(s). If Subscriber purchases Expansion Agent Seat Months, Subscriber agrees to pay all Subscription Charges associated with such Expansion Agent Seat Months. Subscriber is responsible for all Subscription Charges for all Expansion Agent Seat Months whether or not utilized. Expansion Agent Seat Months not utilized in the Subscription Term may not be carried over into any subsequent Subscription Term.

If Subscriber exceeds the number of Agent Seat Month purchased pursuant to its Order Form(s) ("Overage") at any time prior to the Subscription Term End Date, Subscriber will be automatically invoiced and Subscriber agrees to pay for any excess Agent Seat Months resulting from the Overage ("Overage Charges"). Overage Charges shall be calculated by taking the monthly average number of Agent Seat Months from the 3-month period prior to the Overage and multiplying that average by the remaining number of months in the then-current Subscription Term and then multiplying by Zendesk's then-current List Price for Agent Seat Months.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Overage occurs in the last month of the Subscription Term, Subscriber will be automatically invoiced and agrees to pay for the Overage at the same Subscription Charges as indicated in the Order Details of this Service Order Form.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, Subscriber's Subscription Term shall not renew automatically.

Subscriber’s Service Plan includes optional functionality to automate resolutions as described here: https://support.zendesk.com/hc/en-us/articles/5352026794010-About-automated-resolutions-for-AI-agents . To avoid incurring pay-as-you-go fees for use of automated resolutions in excess of your plan allowance, you may either purchase additional automated resolutions or cap your usage in-product.

Any discount provided to Subscriber is applicable only to the initial Subscription Term detailed in this Service Order, unless otherwise expressly agreed by the parties in writing, and will not be applied to any subsequent Subscription Term.
